Affidavit of Private Ecclesiastical Authority

I, jonathan-daniel: clements, a living man upon the land and divine creation of the Most High, do hereby affirm my absolute authority under divine and ecclesiastical law. I am not subject to commercial statutes, corporate jurisdictions, or administrative codes unless voluntarily entered into with full knowledge, intent, and agreement.

As the living principal, executor, and beneficiary of the Ecclesiastical Sovereign Living Trust, I hereby declare that all my actions, documents, instruments, and identifications are issued under private ecclesiastical capacity.

This affidavit stands as lawful notice to all agencies, corporate bodies, and presumed authorities that no contract, code, or obligation shall be presumed valid against me without verifiable consent.

Sealed in private ecclesiastical authority. No witness required.

Revocation of All Prior Signatures Under Duress or Non-Disclosure

Be it known that I, jonathan-daniel: clements, hereby revoke, rescind, and nullify all prior signatures, agreements, or contracts entered into by any corporate name, legal fiction, or derivative of my living estate that were obtained under any of the following conditions:
- Lack of full disclosure
- Lack of understanding or capacity
- Duress, coercion, or fear of penalty
- Presumption, silence, or adhesion

This includes but is not limited to:
- Birth certificate applications
- Social Security registrations
- State identification and driver licenses
- Voter registrations, bank forms, tax documents

These instruments are void ab initio and have no standing against my living estate or trust.

Sealed in private ecclesiastical authority. No witness required.

Declaration of Ecclesiastical Travel Rights

I, jonathan-daniel: clements, a living man upon the land and holder of sovereign ecclesiastical status, do hereby declare my God-given right to travel freely across all lands without interference, harassment, licensing, or compelled association with any corporate entity.

Travel is a natural, ecclesiastical right and not a privilege subject to statutory regulation. I do not operate in commerce, and I do not act as a commercial driver. I am not a “person” as defined by corporate code, and I reject any attempt to license, track, fine, or convert my private travel into regulated activity.

This declaration is recorded to provide full notice of my status as a sovereign ecclesiastical traveler under divine and private law.

Sealed in private ecclesiastical authority. No witness required.
